

MEDIA RELEASE

Guinness World Record Attempt & Charity Fund Raiser

Niseko Golf in association with Golf in Japan announce a World Record golf attempt to be held in Niseko, Hokkaido on July 25th.

Four participants including Dr. Joseph Limoli a former Stanford University golf team member (before Tiger) and golf professional, Bennett Galloway the Director of Golf for Gotemba Golf Club and a golf and snowboard teaching professional, Jiro Kamiharako a former Japanese Olympic ski jumper, the fourth participant is yet to be announced

The participants will attempt to make a world record for most holes played on different courses in one day utilizing the many resort golf courses within the Niseko area.

Currently the application is being processed by the Guinness World Records to determine conditions of the attempt.

The record attempt title:

'Most different golf holes played by a group of four within 24 hours'

This event will coincide with the launching of nisekogolf.com

Date : July 25th (Wed)

Courses : Niseko Higashiyama Prince Course, Niseko Golf Course, Niseko Tokyu Golf Course, Niseko Golf and Resort, Rusutsu Golf Courses (2 in total)

We are currently raising funds for selected charities. The following sponsorship categories are available:

Platinum 100,000 yen, Gold 50,000 yen, Silver 30,000 yen, Bronze 10,000 yen

*Inquiries from companies with golf related products that can be used during the attempt are welcome.

*For further information on sponsorship and media stay packages and settings please Contact:

Ian MacKenzie

Mobile: 090-2050-2811

Niseko Summer Connection, Managing Director

ian@niseko-hirafu.com